"Hope is the force that drives us "to share the journey", because the journey is made jointly: by those who come to our land, and by us who go towards their heart, to understand them, to understand their culture, their language. It is a joint journey by two parties; but without hope, that journey cannot be made."

Floods in Sri Lanka: relief to the displaced has been made possible thanks to the great mobilization of civil society with the parishes on the front lines and the support of the diocesan Caritas. The Caritas network in Sri Lanka has been involved since the early hours in the distribution of food, water and basic necessities.
